

Swinefleet Town Land Charity

The charity has a small amount of funds to benefit the parish of Swinefleet. It provides donations to organisations and groups, such as senior citizens, toddlers, school, village hall and church. The charity will also consider small contributions towards books for students at University or similar levels of education.

For groups and organisations please apply in writing to the address below giving details of what the donation is required for and the cost.

For students who are resident in the parish of Swinefleet please applying in writing to the address below giving details of the University and course.

The charity meets towards the end of April and November each year.
